San Diego Quilt Show News

Check out the website www.sandiegoquilts.com for the new class lists, entry forms and information! Enter a quilt and maybe even win! If you enter a quilt into the show, let us know at the August meeting and be entered for a SUPER SWEET PRIZE

Freedom Station is the charity of the show and they have put out a request for quilts. Any red, white and blue prints or solids would be welcome. <https://www.warriorfoundation.org> They have recently acquired another facility to house veterans coming out of the Balboa Hospital and transitioning to post military life. Lauren McGowan will accept any donations and deliver. Bring them to the meeting or Sew In.

I hope we can get many entries and, of course, so show winners from our Guild.

Anyone wanting to volunteer at the show and therefore get free entry check the website.

Charity Corner

Keep tagging your charity work! #sdmqgcharity Current Charity Drive

Just in Time for Foster Youth (JIT) My First Home Project May – August.

JIT is a program that helps to support those, ages 18 - 26, who are coming out of the foster care system by providing various services to them to help them become self-sufficient and break the cycle of foster care.

We support the My First Home project, which helps to set up a first apartment and furnish that apartment. Our focus for this trimester is on throw and bed sized quilts - quilts should be 50" x 60" or larger.

Quilt Con 2019 Quilt Planning

The group charity quilt for 2019 is currently being planned. The focus for the upcoming Quilt Con is on small piecing, which needs to be incorporated, but does not need to be the entire focus. Check out <https://www.quiltcon.com/charity-quilt-challenge-2019> for more information on the challenge. If anyone has any ideas or input they want to contribute, please email Kristyn at sdmqqgcharity@gmail.com.
