Mark your Calendars - There is no regular Guild meeting in May because it falls on Mother's Day. However, there is a Sew-in at Quilt in a Day, from 11-4.

Our June meeting is on June 2 because the conflict with the Retreat. There is a Rummage Sale planned for after the meeting, so start cleaning your Sewing rooms!

Charity

Kristyn announced our first trimester recipient is the Polinsky Children's Center in San Diego. Any size will work for the kids.

Several blocks from kits distributed in January for group quilt were collected. They are due in March.

No Birthday bags were distributed for February.

Colleen gave a great explanation about how Quilts are juried and judged for QuiltCon. One of the most important submission advice is to enter your quilt in the correct category.

I-Chun explained how the Wish Tree works for guild members. If you have a wish for a thoughtful, reasonable request, simply write it on a heart tag and place it on the tree. Be sure to include your name. Then other guild members can choose your tag and fulfill your wish.

Raffle

Lotto Block - Hashtag for March. Go to our Blog for instructions.

Member Spotlight - Hadley Mendoza-Miklos

Sew and Tell

Swap

A Mug Rug swap is scheduled today after the meeting in the classroom.

Respectively submitted,
